INVITATION AND CALL FOR PAPERS (First Round)

The 21st International Conference on Innovation and Management (ICIM2024)

Organizers

Wuhan University of Technology (China)

Hong Kong Polytechnic University (China)

University of Paris I (France)

Chengdu University of Information Technology (China)

Tilburg University (The Netherlands)

Yamaguchi University (Japan)

Pontifical Catholic University of Sao Paulo (Brazil)

Technological University of Malaysia (Malaysia)

University of Vaasa (Finland)

University of Wales Trinity Saint David (England)

University of Jaen (Spain)

Host

Wuhan University of Technology (China)

Date

Nov. 23rd, 2024 - Nov. 24th, 2024

Conference Form

Online (Tencent Meeting) and offline (Wuhan University of Technology, Wuhan City, Hubei Province)

Conference Theme

Green Responsibility and Sustainable Innovation

Main Topics

- 1. Technological Innovation and Business Ethics
- 2. Technology Innovation for Sustainable Development
- 3. Innovation and Strategy Management
- 4. Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- 5. Accounting and Innovation
- 6. Financial Technology and Innovation
- 7. Big Data and Business Intelligence
- 8. Risk Management and Decision Analysis
- 9. Organizational Behavior and Human Resource Management
- 10. Marketing Engineering and Service Science
- 11. Systems Engineering and Knowledge Management
- 12. Supply Chain and Operations Management
- 13. Social Governance and Sustainable Development
- 14. Integrated Topics

Conference Language Requirement

Conference Publications

1. All accepted papers will be included in the Proceedings of ICIM 2024 published by a recognized publishing house and submitted to CPCI and CNKI for index.

2. A selected number of excellent papers will be recommended for publication in the international journal

Management System Engineering (MSE).

Award for Excellent Paper

Selecting excellent papers, setting up several first prizes, second prizes and third prizes, and awarding certificates.

Conference Fee

Each paper to be included and published in the Proceedings of ICIM 2024 should be exactly 4 or 5 pages, and is charged 2,500 RMB of editing and layout fee. Excess page charge is 300 RMB/page. Every author included in the Proceedings will receive an electronic copy of the conference paper proceedings.

Key Dates

July 30, 2024 – Paper submission deadline

August 20, 2024 – Notification of acceptance

October 15, 2024 - End of registration

November 23-24, 2024 – Conference, held in Wuhan University of Technology (online and offline)

Paper Format

Papers should be written in strict conformity with the requirements in the attached Paper Format and Sample.

Otherwise, they will be rejected. Papers must be submitted in MS Office Word format (version 2003 and above) with Reply Notice filled out in Chinese/English.

Submission

Email: innovation@whut.edu.cn.

Please submit with the subject line including "ICIM2024" and make sure the completed "Reply Notice" is attached to the submission. After the submission, you will receive an automatic reply.

Once you receive the acceptance notice of the paper, the conference group will contact the author for the follow-up revisions and final manuscript confirmation. Please pay attention to emails and phone calls from the conference group.

Note: In principle, there should be no more than two first-author papers of the same author.

Overview

Management System Engineering is a peer-reviewed journal addressing the theory, methodology, and applications underlying management science and systems engineering.

- Fosters new research to help decision-makers understand the mechanisms and complexity of management systems.
- Presents new developments in theory and practice to improve the performance of management systems.
- Dedicated to decision modelling, optimization, stimulation, computation, and data analytics.
- Offers high visibility for your work with free APC sponsored by Wuhan University of Technology.

Editors-in-Chief Xiaofang Chen, Lida Xu

Executive Editor-in-Chief Jindong Qin

Aims and scope

Management System Engineering (MSE) is a peer-reviewed scholarly journal dedicated to the methodology of System Engineering (SE) and the practice of Management Decision Making. Among the topics considered are: decision modelling, optimization, stimulation, computation, and data analytics for identifying and solving management problems; making business decisions; and managing risks in complex management systems from the SE perspective. The journal also provides a unique and premiere forum for topics such as issue data-driven applications for interdisciplinary problems, and issue interpretation for any of the systems engineering lifecycle phases associated with the definition; development, and deployment of large systems with the aid of new information technology using big data analysis, cloud computing, internet of things, blockchain and so forth.

- Explores the methodology of system engineering and the practice of management decision making.
- Provides a platform for interdisciplinary research on data information, control and management.
- Benefits academics, researchers, and professionals in the field of data-informationmanagement.

Paper Format and Sample for the Proceedings

Paper Format

- 1. The paper should consist of the following parts in the right order:
 - Title → author's name → author's affiliations → abstract → key words → introduction → main text → conclusion → references
- 2. All figures and tables must be included in-line with the text. Words in figures and tables must be printed in the required typeface and font size.
- 3. Table headers should be above the tables and centered. Figure captions should be below the figures and centered. Serial numbers of these figures, tables and formulas should be placed in order.
- 4. References must be more than ten entries and the information should be listed in strict conformity with the required sequence:[Serial number] Author's name. Title of the Book/Article [Literature type]. Publishing House/Journal Name, the year of publication: page numbers
 - Note: ① It needs to be indicated in brackets when the reference is in Chinese. ② As for literature types, [J] is for journal, [M] for monograph or book, [N] for newspaper, [D] for academic dissertation, [R] for report, [P] for patent documentation.

For example:

- [1] Aluminum. A Market Approach to Energy Conservation[J]. Journal of Consumer Affairs, 2002,16(3):300-317
- [2] Hooper, J. Nielsen, Andrew Whinstion. Recycling as Altruistic Behavior: Normative and Behavioral Strategies to Expand Participation in a Community Recycling Programmer[J]. Environment and Behavior, 2002, (23):195-201
- [3] Xie Kefan, Cheng Guoqing. A Model of Receding Behavior, with Evidence from Danish Source Separation Programmers[M]. Wuhan: Press of Wuhan University of Technology, 2003:78-90 (In Chinese)
- 5. The references should be marked in the form of (author, year) in the text of the paper.
- 6. Sponsorship or support for the paper should be included in Acknowledgement which is placed before Reference, after Conclusion.
- 7. Each paper should be of at least 4 pages.
- 8. The email of each author should be provided and listed at the right place.
- 9. Abstract should be more than six lines, which introduces the research methods, opinions, conclusions and creative ideas, not just an introduction of background. The following sentence patterns can be taken as an example: "The paper employs.....(approach), presents....., implies......, set up....., draw the conclusion.....". At least 4 key words should be attached.
- 10. The first part of the main text must be "Introduction", which introduces overseas and domestic research status. The final part of the paper is "Conclusion", which summarizes the paper and proposes suggestions and expectations for the future research.

Font Rules

- 1. Font: Times New Roman for the whole paper
- 2. Size: 14-point font, bold and centered for paper title; 12-point font, bold for the first-class titles; 10-point font, bold for the second-class titles; 10-point font for third-class titles and the main text; 9-point font, bold and centered for titles of figures and tables; 9-point font for words and notes in figures and tables.
- 3. Italicize the variables in English and Greek in mathematical formulas. Leave the rations in normal font.

Printing Requirement

- 1.Do not print page numbers.
- 2. Prepare your paper using A4 pages with the size of 210mm by 297mm
- 3. Open the page-setting window, and choose "no grid" in the "document grid" option. Set top margin to 30mm; Set bottom margin to 35mm; Set left margin to 31mm; Set right margin to 31mm.
- 4.Open the "Format" window, and in the "Paragraph" option, choose 0cm in "Indent", choose 0 pound in "Space Between", choose mono-row in "Row Spacing", and choose none in "Special Format".
- 5. Software requirements: Microsoft Windows 97 and the above versions. (Check the Sample Paper for Conference Proceedings).
